HIGH POINT COLLEGE

Dedication

Just as the average student is not the A student,
So is the average teacher not an A teacher.

Only a few teachers can we students honestly designate as exceptional teachers.
They gain this distinction by qualifications of fairness, friendliness, sympathy, genuine concern for students,

For devotion to their profession beyond its actual demands, a disinclination to shirk responsibility, a thorough grasp of subject matter and an interesting and vital manner of presenting it, a way of making us as students realize the importance of learning,

For being truly "professional minded" and "student minded."

These are the teachers who demand both respect and love.

One teacher whom the senior class believes to possess these qualities in the highest degree is a person we consider an A+ teacher and an A+ human being.

With gratitude and affection we, the senior class of 1959, dedicate our yearbook to DR. FRANCES E. MULDROW.

DR. FRANCES E. MULDROW

When to the sessions of sweet silent thought
I summon up . . .

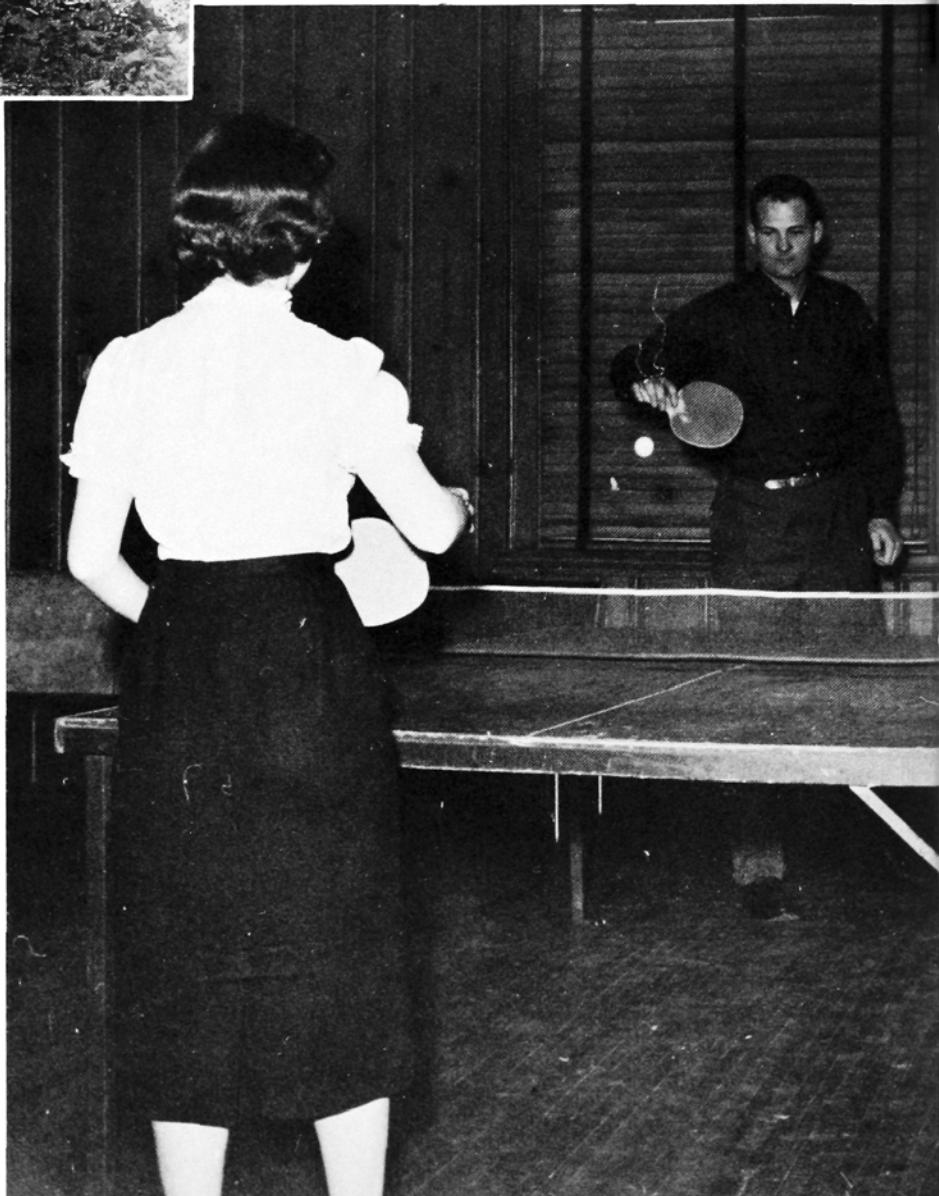

Remembrance of Things Past . . .

*"The mind's eye sees the campus green;
The mind's ear hears a sound serene . . ."*

The familiar silver singing of the chimes drifts across the spacious campus lawns as students saunter through the dusk in groups and pairs. The sight and sounds of the campus, our "home-for-four-years," will be a memory locked in our hearts.

The rapid bidding in a student center bridge game, the high-pitched yell of a Panther fan, the gay call of "Thirty-All" from the tennis courts . . . the lyrics differ; the melody is the same. The song is youth . . . enjoying itself.

In the reverent stillness of the chapel we bow our heads in a wordless supplication, and our hearts are locked together in the unity of our common prayer, our common quest.

Committee meetings . . . club activities . . . not, as some charge, another type of recreation for students, but another form of learning, the basis of the student life—the process by which High Point College builds good citizens for tomorrow.

A casual clasp of hands, a teasing word, an inobtrusive message from one pair of eyes to another . . . and beneath these simple signs the breathless mystery of one heart reaching out to another. The campus rings with the melody of their laughter, the merry music of young people in love.

Suddenly or slowly a teacher's words or a phrase from a book, recalled and transmuted in our minds reveals to us for an instant the process of education—not as thousands of divergent facts and ideas to be memorized and assimilated, but as a unified and interwoven pattern. Thus we begin to learn.

Afterwards we wonder, was it real and tangible?—the anticipation, the mystery, the thrill of fraternity initiation—Ah, but it was a symbol of values that were real—fellowship, friendship, a true brotherhood, “not of words but of acts and deeds.”

We arise in the hushed hours of the dawn and steal silently to the clubrooms to organize, synthesize, memorize. We drink dark coffee and nod over our books in the still watches of the night. Campus frolicking abates as examinations near.

Roommate, fraternity brother, sorority sister, sweetheart, teacher, friend—such little words to symbolize the relationships which give meaning to our college experience—Our favorite lessons are those which teach us, at work and at play, the fundamental principles of group living.

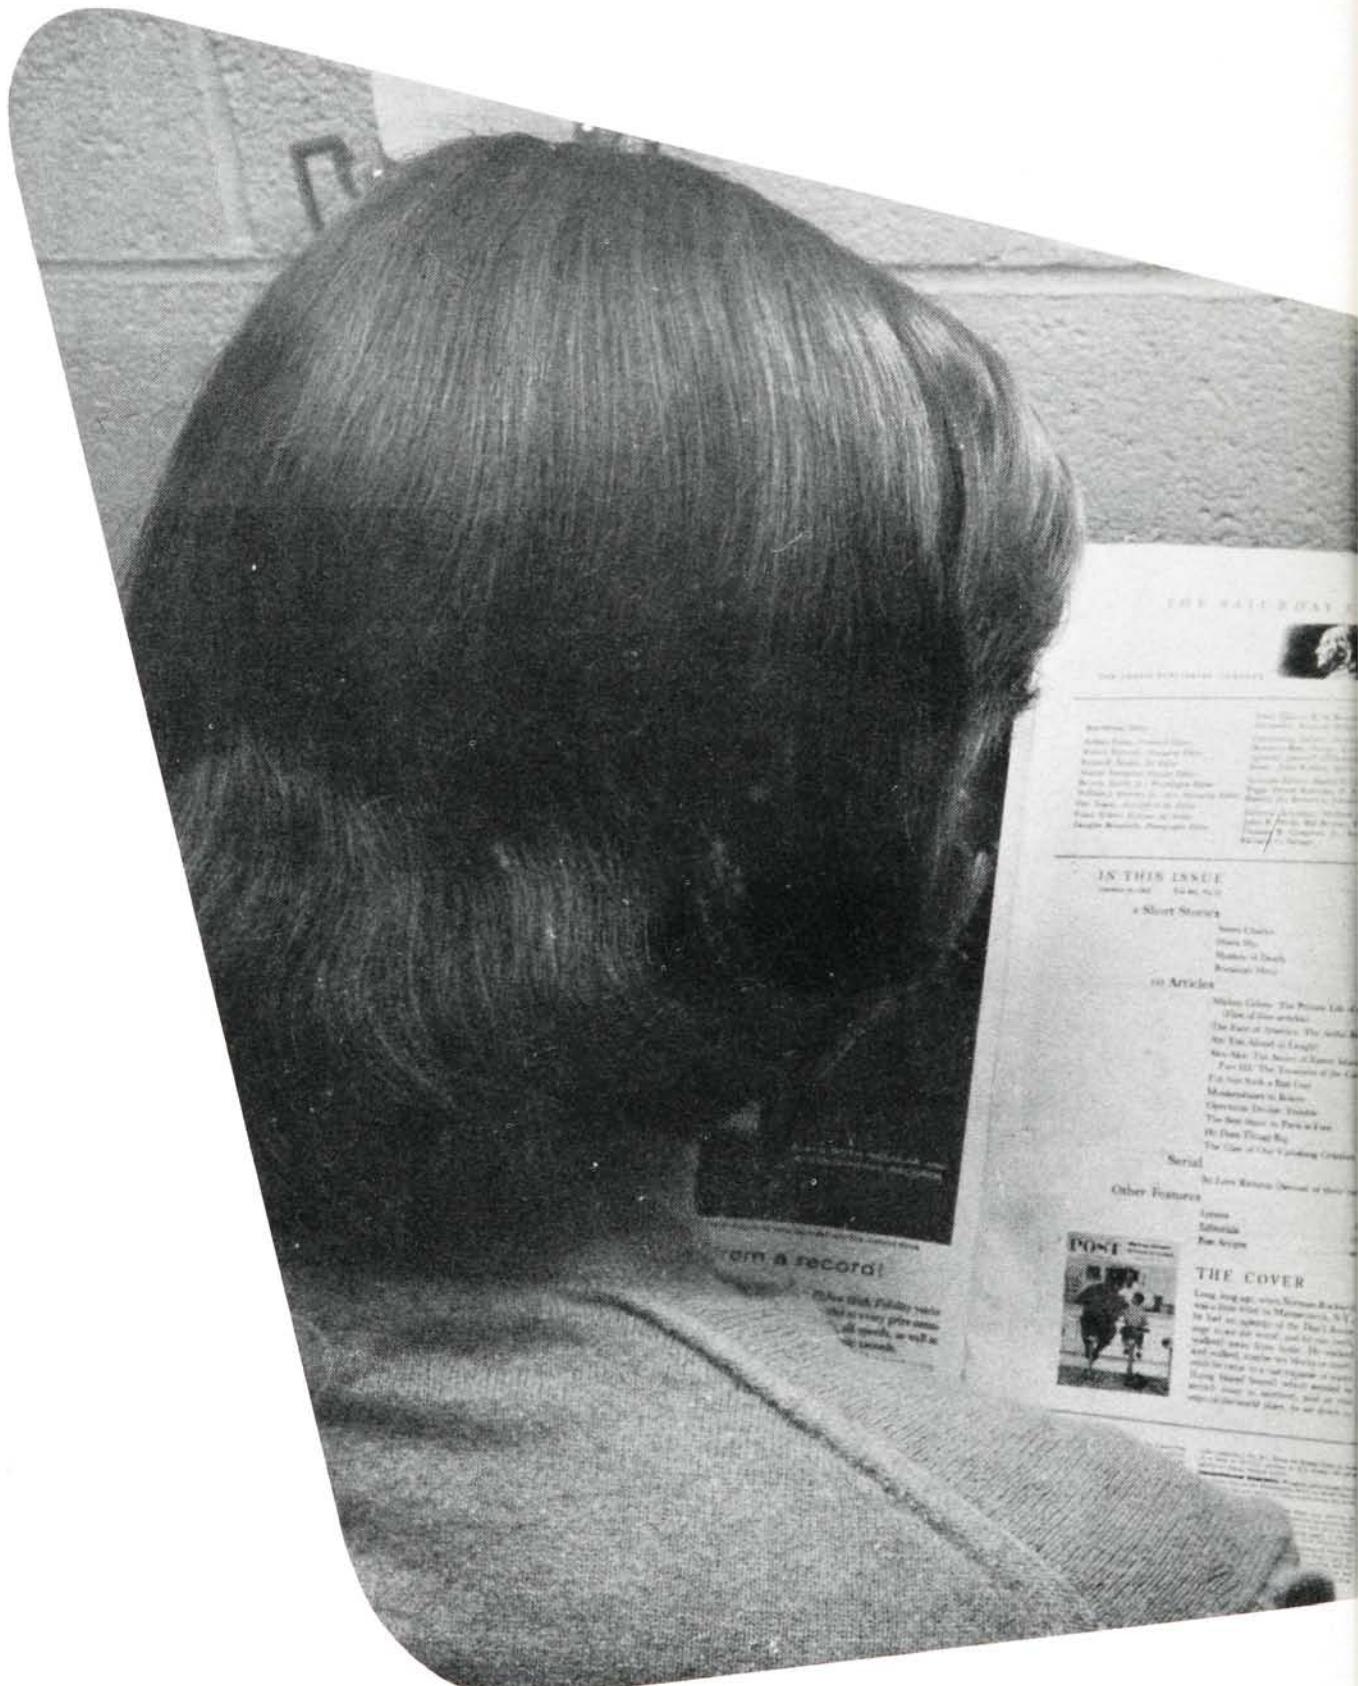

And suddenly, as on eagle wings, the years have flown, and we come to say good-bye, bound closest perhaps by the little things—the shared jokes, the midnight talk fests, all the helpful, hilarious, ignoble, dramatic, wonderful experiences we shared which are forever a part of our Remembrance of Things Past.

"The past is but the beginning of a beginning, and all that is and has been is but the twilight of the dawn."

Seniors

The senior is a renowned explorer. He knows everything there is to know about the college world and already is turning his thoughts to the near and unfamiliar future. He is concerned with such serious matters as practice teaching, getting a job, applying for graduate school, and marriage. The epitome of erudition to the underclassmen, he sometimes scandalizes them by indulging in bits of foolish clowning.

He debates with professors the God-given perogative of students to fritter away their senior year, and he holds his breath until the final exam grades appear. One day he treads the aisle for the last time, and diploma in hand, he steps out to face the future with nostalgia for the days that are past and great expectations for the days that are ahead.

Juniors

The junior is a happy vagabond. With required courses behind him, he never allows studies to interfere with his social life. He enjoys taking most courses in his major subject. He attends committee meetings, engages in club activities, and dates frequently. Despite the pressure of these duties, he always has time for frivolity. Six hours of sleep, he discovers, is not always necessary.

He begins frantically to compare the number of his hours with the number of his quality points. He buys wedding presents and watches apprehensively the thinning ranks of his class.

In Memoriam

Memorial to a Highly Regarded Fellow Student

The ZENITH presents this page as a memorial to Robert A. "Bobby" Badgett in token of the feelings of the student body towards him. Bobby, a Junior and a member of Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity, was killed in an accident occurring at the beginning of the 1958-59 school year. He was well-liked by his fellow students and has been sorely missed around the campus.

Sophomores

The sophomore is a seasoned traveler. Having become thoroughly initiated into the joys of bridge, airport pizza, "crip courses," Lindale's, bop, and "going steady," he is happy to share this valuable information with the freshmen as long as these underclassmen respect his superior knowledge and dignity.

He takes general psychology and psychoanalyzes his friends (and professors) in midnight gab sessions; he struggles with Beowulf and practices a pantomime for speech class.

He thinks frantically about changing his major, and reaches the halfway mark with a joy only faintly dimmed by the suspicion that this business of getting educated is becoming more difficult every year.

Freshmen

The freshman is an enthusiastic adventurer, who, armed with a high school diploma, a ready supply of optimism, and a purple-and-white beanie, eagerly but with some trepidation, enters the turbulent world of the college campus.

He achieves (the hard way) some familiarity with the internal structure of the frog, gains acquaintance with such assorted characters as Napoleon and Mary, Queen of Scots, and investigates the advantages and disadvantages of fraternities and sororities. He learns (contrary to what Mother told him) that eight hours of sleep are not always necessary, and that it takes approximately nine minutes to get from bed to an 8:20 class.

Now every twig and limb are encased in glowing crystal, and we stand with awe in the midst of the mystery and majesty of the winter world.

The rains come—lashing cruelly or splashing merrily—then pass suddenly like Arabs in the night; the sun shines again and breathes the fresh perfume of growing things upon the earth. The lawns are dotted with the brilliant hues of flowers garmented in vivid colors and co-eds blossoming in new spring frocks.

FRED BARBER
President

The school year of 1958-59 has been an important one in the life of the High Point College Student Government Association. This has been an eventful year in terms of activity, and it is our hope that it will also be remembered as a year of change, and thus a year of progress.

Early in the first semester a new constitution, providing for a bi-cameral legislature, was prepared by a special Constitution Committee, and was passed unanimously by the student body. In the second semester two student parties were formed on our campus. The parties were organized to stimulate student interest, and to encourage competition in student elections. Also during the second semester a code of student law was accepted by the legislature, and our judicial system was revised. The Executive Committee was also revised, adding the day and dormitory presidents to that committee.

The Executive Committee, The Student Senate, The Student House of Representatives, and the Judiciary Council have tried to make ours an effective Student Government . . . a workable organization that is worth while and beneficial to the students. It is our hope that next year will be an improvement and that the Student Government Association will continue to grow in function and activity, continually striving for a better college community.

Its duty is to serve any member of the student body who feels he has been treated unfairly. It acts as a mediator between the student body and the administration.

The Judiciary Council is composed of ten members, two from each dorm, one from each class, and two from the day student council. From these ten the members select one person to act as Chief Justice.

CHARLES JOHNSON
Presider

The school year of 1958-59 witnessed the establishment of several major changes in the Student Government Constitution. Members of the Student Government Constitution Committee were instrumental in setting up the revision of the Constitution which was presented to the Student Legislature and approved on Tuesday, October 21. The revision was presented and passed by the Student Body during Assembly Wednesday, October 29.

Two major changes were made in the past constitution. Legislative powers are divided between a Student Senate and a Student House of Representatives in the revision, similar to the form of government used on state and federal levels.

House of Representatives

The second major change adds the Day Students' President and the dormitory presidents to the Executive Committee, which has consisted of the four officers of the Student Government Association.

Other changes may be found in the election procedures, where a petition is required for nomination of officers in the spring elections.

Dormitory life is perhaps one of the most valuable facets of the college educational process. In these surroundings we learn some of our most important lessons—toleration, co-operation, sharing, the integration of our personalities into that of the group. Helping us and guiding us in our adjustment to the dormitory environment are Mrs. Perry, Miss Shirley, and the capable sympathetic members of the dormitory council.

The men's dormitory council serves the campus by serving the dorm residents, functioning in close conjunction with the Student Government and with the Administration. Officers of the dormitory council assist in the orientation program of freshmen boys, handle minor infractions of the rules, and assist many residents to work out problems. Seeing group living as an instrument of education in itself, the officers strive to make the experience of dormitory life as rewarding and as pleasant as possible.

We are proud to say that one of the largest organizations on campus is the Day Student Organization. The group is composed of all students who commute to and from college daily. Quite a few of these students drive cars, some ride buses, and there are a few who have no parking problem at all—they walk.

Many of the day students are born and bred High Pointers, but there are those who travel to class at High Point College from Winston-Salem, Salisbury, and Madison.

Membership in this organization is automatic, and we boast the number of our group as 445 students.

Another Monday morning.

Between classes day students enjoy a game of ping-pong in the Student Center.

Keynote for Religion-in-Life Week in the spring of 1958 was the Chi Rho, symbol of Christ, superimposed upon the maze, which represented the confusion and tension of modern living.

The purpose of the Student Christian Association is to stimulate Christian growth and development which is needed by the college community. It is a coordinator of the four denominational fellowships and two vocational religious fraternities on campus.

The Student Christian Association is composed of all students and is directed by a council of three officers and eighteen representatives. Offering guidance to the council are four adult advisors: Dr. Hudgins, Dr. Locke, Miss Bowman, and Dr. Netcher.

Highlights of the year include the following: the fall retreat of the council at Spring Hill Methodist Church; the chapel program in which over $200 was raised for our foster children; Christmas caroling; Christianity-in-Life week conducted by Rev. Warren Carr of Durham on "The Seven Deadly Sins of the College Student;" Sunday night vespers which were held every Sunday night; and midweek vespers on Wednesday evenings.

Leadership, friendship, and service—sisters in the service of God—these have been the guiding principles of Alpha Delta Theta. Several of the highlights of 1958-59 in Alpha Delta Theta were the spring retreat at which we made plans for the next year, the new program of pledge training which turned out very successfully, ending in an inspirational initiation service which took in fifty-two new members, the joint Alpha Delta Theta-Kappa Chi Christmas meeting and social with guest, Mrs. Frank Daniels, telling several Christmas stories, and the year climaxed with a week-end retreat. The list of services and activities would fill an entire page, but among a few were weekly dorm devotions, Koinonea groups, and Alpha Delta Theta chorus. Another year has passed, but the girls in Alpha Delta Theta will never forget what it has meant to them.

“Brothers in Christ”

Kappa Chi is a fraternity founded to provide brotherhood to its members and a means of uniting their efforts and hearts toward the service of God. The Xi chapter at High Point College is composed of male students who are preparing themselves for full time service to the Christian church. It is the intention of the fraternity to supply a medium of instruction and inspiration to its members, that they might better grow toward the likeness of Christ. In service and in worship, in study and in instruction, the members of Kappa Chi strive toward the fulfillment of their calling through brotherhood in Christ.

Methodist Student Fellowship

The Methodist Student Fellowship on the college campus is part of a national movement sponsored by the Methodist Church. The purpose of the Methodist Student Fellowship is to provide a Christian community for the Methodist students on campus. In the community students work toward a deeper understanding of their Christian experience. The vision of faith is clarified by intellectual studies of various problems of the world community in which the members participate. The meaning of the Church and its message today is important to each member as he chooses to support the church with a dedicated mind, body, and spirit. Worship, wholesome fun, and study bind the members together.

1958-59 marked the third year on the High Point College campus for the Westminster Fellowship, the Presbyterian student organization. Through service projects, participation in the religious program of the college, and other activities, Westminster has continued to demonstrate that it has a place on campus.

Westminster meets twice a month at the home of its sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Pancoast. Meetings feature inspiring and enlightening programs and discussions of topics of importance to Christian students. Programs are followed by periods of fellowship. Students of all denominations are welcome to attend the meetings and take part in the activities of the Fellowship.

1958-59 Volume 33

HPC, 1959. Sounds of the pecking of typewriters, rustling of papers, and general buzzing fill the small room in the top of the tower. The scene is the usual one; the time is just before the deadline hour. Working against time the editorial members frantically type copy with one finger, talk to a reporter, and check for a last minute photo, all in one breath. The air is heavy with Viceroy and Winston. The hour is late. Coffee is perking. It is a typical scene when another Hi-Po is put to bed for volume 33. A few days and several trips to the printer's later, a neat chronicle and commentary on life at High Point College is in the hands of the students. A few words of praise or censure and it all begins again for those who have made volume 33 of the Hi-Po "the voice of the students."

It is the sincere hope of the business and editorial staffs that we have presented to the student body a newsworthy and interesting paper which has upheld the American tradition of freedom of expression.

Publishing a yearbook is a tangled mixture of organization and confusion, labor and laughter, delight and despair. It is a labor of love and a task filled with tension. We of the staff feel fortunate that we have been able to render this service to our school and to our fellow students. We hope that members of the student body will appreciate and find pleasure in our labor and that they will turn many times through the pages of the book to recapture cherished "remembrances of things past."

Zenith Business Staff

The editors wish to express their sincere appreciation to Mell Busbin and his capable staff for the financing of the 1959 Zenith. The duties of the business manager included paying bills, helping to arrange terms of the contract, selling advertisements, keeping accounts of all money collected and spent for printing, photography, and materials, and, with the help of the Miss HPC Committee, making plans for the Miss High Point College Contest. This production, graced by the presence of Miss North Carolina herself, was one of the most charming and colorful presentations of the year.

Physical Education Majors Club

Though only in its second year of organization on the High Point College campus, the Physical Education Majors Club is an active, working group which already boasts sixty-two members. Activities of the club include monthly business meetings and various projects to raise money for their annual gift to the Physical Education Department. Last spring with funds from such projects, the group bought a mimeograph machine for the department. In such ways the club serves their college and stimulates interest in physical education as an occupation.

High Point College is committed to a dynamic program in the Fine Arts—music, dramatics, speech, and art, to meet the varying needs of all its students. With its new, modern, and adequate Fine Arts building and up-to-date equipment, with its well-educated and experienced faculty in these fields, and its progressive and complete curriculum, the competent student can do his major work in these areas with assurance that he will be able to meet the demands of his field. The non-major student in these fields can develop a vocational and cultural interest in them that will abide with him throughout his life and constitute real sources of personal enjoyment and pleasure.

Band

The concert band helps to increase musical enjoyment and understanding among its members and among its audiences by studying thoroughly and performing effectively the best band literature of all periods. In addition to concerts on campus and in the High Point vicinity, the band makes an extended tour each year. Another contribution to student enjoyment is the band's appearance at pep assemblies and home basketball games.

The Torchbearers

HPC DRAMA GROUP TO GIVE COMEDY,
"THE TORCH-BEARERS"

This zany comedy was written in 1922, and has become a favorite of colleges and little theatres. Basically the plot of the satire concerns a community theatre group which is trying to produce a play in spite of death and irate husbands. The second act is one of the funniest ever written for the current stage.

Siege of Sit Tite

"Siege of Sit-tite"—a unique treat—furniture production put to Musical Comedy by Dr. Lew Lewis, head of the Fine Arts Department. Dr. Lewis wrote the music, lyrics, and also a book.

The play is about a furniture factory whose sales have been steadily declining. The nephew of the founder, who is dead, is seeking to gain control of the firm to pull it out of the slump. The first act takes place in the upholstery room. The second act is a television show sponsored by the company, and the third act occurs in a furniture exhibit.

The Death of a Salesman

TOWER PLAYERS OUTDO SELVES IN "DEATH OF A SALESMAN"

"The capabilities of the Tower Players of High Point College have never been more clearly evident than in their production of Arthur Miller's 'Death of a Salesman.' Not since their production of Tennessee Williams' 'The Glass Menagerie' several years ago has High Point presented such a theatrical opportunity. It was a rare and moving experience the Players presented on the stage of Memorial auditorium."

The play centers around a mediocre traveling salesman, who has made himself believe that he is a great success in business. He tries to instill these false ideas of success into the minds of his two athletic sons. His wife believes in him and tries to tie the bond between father and sons.

In 1949, the play won the Pulitzer Prize, and Drama Critic's Circle Award.

To Alma Mater sing we now:

To thee all loyalty we vow,

In knowledge, faith, humility

Of thee we would be worthy

Thy motto may we all obey,

Nil sine numine.

May we thy children learn to pray,

And walk with Alma Mater.

When from these halls we must depart,

Nurtured in each grateful heart,

Will be the warmth of friendly days,

Enjoyed along thy pathways.

When on our ears thy name shall fall,

It will be a herald trumpet's call,

To hail thee college, queen of all,

Oh well loved Alma Mater.

The mind's eye sees the campus green,

The mind's ear hears a sound serene,

A cherished hymn from bell tower rings

Remembered be thy blessings.

Throughout our lives in accents clear,

The chords of memory draw us near

To sing again a song sincere

In praise of Alma Mater.

The Panhellenic Council is the co-ordinating group of girls for the social sororites on campus. The purpose of the Panhellenic Council is to maintain on a high plane, sorority life and friendship, to cooperate with college authorities in their efforts to maintain high social and scholastic standards throughout the whole college and to be a forum for the discussion of sorority affairs.

Our Council, composed of two sisters from each of the four sororities on campus, has the responsibility of carrying out its own program and settling its own difficulties as long as its actions and regulations do not conflict with any part of the National Panhellenic Compact. This year the Panhellenic Council promoted a new rushing program for the girls of the sororities which proved very successful.

Interfraternity Council

The Interfraternity Council is the co-ordinator of the social fraternities on campus—its main objective is to further by unification and high ideals the standards of brotherhood, character, and scholarship necessary to any worthy fraternity. The council is composed of two representatives from each fraternity. It was founded to govern all fraternities, to study their problems, and to promote co-operation and friendship among its components. Not only does this friendship last throughout college life and with friends made on campus, but will extend far into the future.

There in the sunlight, beneath the hidden cares of college life, is a white rose. Its petals are as white and pure as diamonds and its luster will remain a symbol throughout our lives. To you it is only a rose, to us, as Sisters of Kappa Delta, it is our heart. In its beauty our dear white rose seems to be a golden chalice held high where all our life's treasures lie. There, as in our hearts, will always remain deeply enfolded honor, beauty, truth, sisterly love, and fond memories of happy youth. These are the gifts given to us by our own Kappa Delta.

There have been smiles and there have been tears, and the future surely holds many more. We, sisters, have shared both tears and smiles; together we shall face our tomorrow. There is no fear for our love is as a radiant shaft of light and no matter what the silken threads of darkness hold, this love will guide us.

To a Kappa Delta her sister's smile is a priceless gift, for her happiness is our happiness. Her tears are shared as loyally and sincerely as her smile. Her honor is our honor and whatever befalls her we shall stand ever faithful by her side.

Our heart is in a rose laden with happiness, and ever striving for that which is honorable, beautiful, and highest. My heart is my sister's heart for we are Sisters of Kappa Delta.

A SISTER'S THOUGHT OF PHI MU

A Phi Mu is a girl who has moonglow in her hair, stardust in her eyes, and heaven in her smile.

Her impish grin is sunshine on a cloudy day.

Its warmth is a caress which peeps through your troubles and quickly dries your tears.

She is a girl in a pink jacket who looks for all the world like a princess—in spite of the freckles on her nose.

She is beauty sitting cross-legged in bermuda shorts giving motherly advice.

She is sister, mother, and friend—all rolled into one.

She is always understanding, and sometimes tender.

She can be playful, coy, and even mischievous.

She has the power to lift your hopes with one glance,
one twinkling of those laughing eyes.

When she smiles, she brings courage and hope to

To be a Zeta is . . .

To see the sparkle of laughter in the eyes of a sister . . .
and know you belong.

To force yourself to stay awake when you would sleep . . .
for fear you might miss part of the slumber party.

To share the secrets of a girl's heart with your sisters . . .
those nearest to you.

To thrill to the thought that one great guy is so proud that you're a Zeta.

And yet, more than these,

To be a Zeta is . . .

To be true to yourself and to those within and without your circle.

To be steadfast, strong, and clean of heart and mind.

To find satisfaction in being rather than seeming.

To learn the nobility of serving, thereby earning the right to be served.

To seek understanding that you might gain true wisdom.

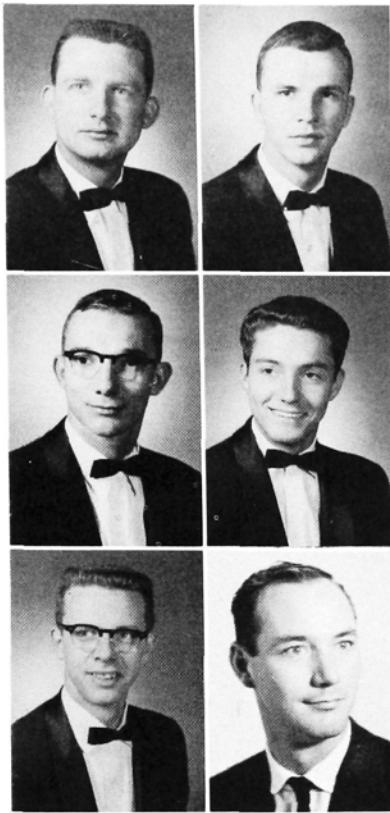

To see beauty with its enriching influence.

To strive ever to make your life a symphony of high ideals,

Remembering always that the foundation precept of Zeta

Tau Alpha was Love, "the greatest of all things."

In 1889, in New York, at the College of the City of New York, Delta Sigma Phi was founded. Since then Delta Sigs have become known on campuses all over the nation and Canada.

In the fall of 1956, the NDM Club at High Point became a colony of Delta Sigma Phi and in the following spring, we were initiated into Delta Sigdom and received our chapter charter. Since becoming a national fraternity, the true spirit of brotherhood has been made a reality, sharing our experiences together and helping each other.

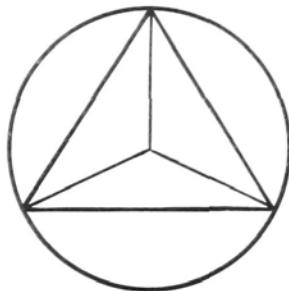

1958-1959 will always stand out as being a highly active year for us—the National Convention was held in Manhattan, Kansas, in the fall before school opened—the party on Blue Ridge Parkway—Snow King Wienberry moved to Virginia—Swing Dance Party at YMCA—Stag rush party followed by date rush dance with the Dukes of Dixie—Party at Weinberry's new home—Charlie gives Lee a Diamond and she is serenaded—Pledges worked hard—Brothers and pledges build a 1500 lb. Sphinx—Carnation Ball was held in Charlotte—Girls were serenaded at Christmas—Barber pinned Starr—Gansman held a stag party—We played the Wake Forest chapter in basketball—Gerry pinned Anne Rogers at Lenoir Rhyne—We ranked first in scholarship—We won second place in national leadership contest—Sailor's Ball was held in S. C.

1958-59 Delta Sig Pledge Class

Delta Sig believes that leaders are made . . . not born. We believe that every college man has leadership potential, and that this potential can be developed. Leadership ability is to us one of the most valuable assets that can be attained while in college, and is an asset in finding vocational success.

Pledge training in Delta Sigma Phi includes Engineered Leadership. By helping the chapter grow, the pledge grows and gains experience that is priceless. He begins to learn the meaning of "Delta Sig" . . . a man who loves his fraternity and what it stands for. He learns to make personal sacrifices for his fraternity without expecting praise or adulation. He learns to respect others, and puts the interest of the group above his own selfish interests. He becomes interested in improving his scholarship; in developing his personality, and making a leader of himself. He begins to realize the help his fraternity will give him in later life, and he takes advantage of the experience it offers him.

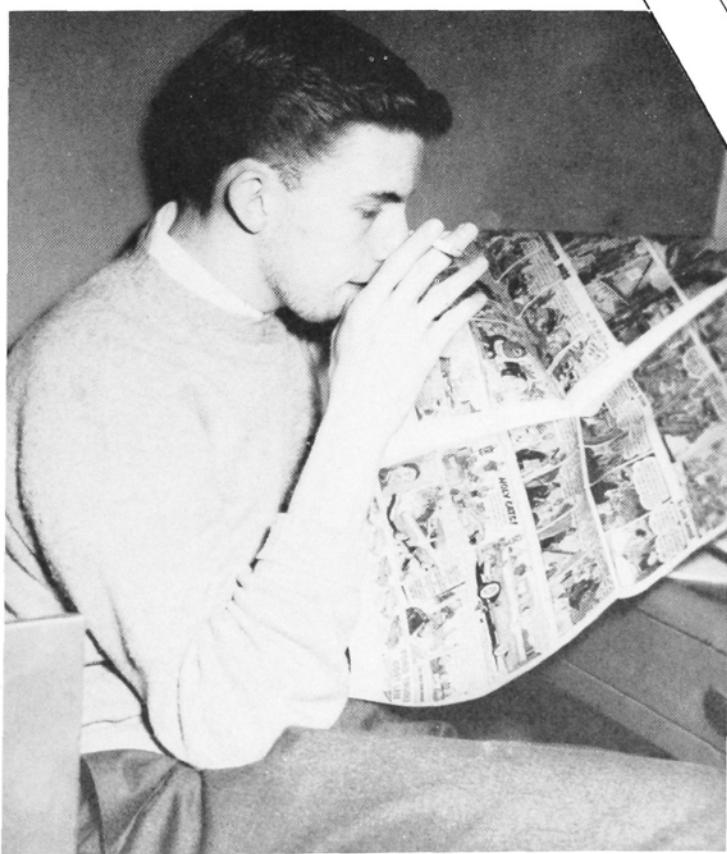

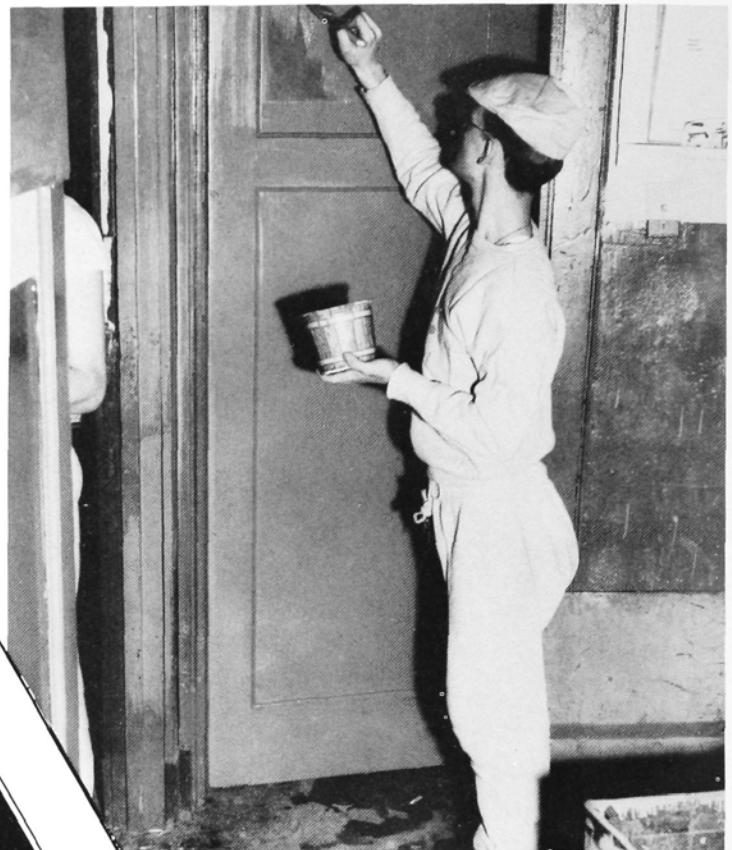

Leadership . . . Scholarship . . . Personality Development . . . Social Improvement . . . Lasting Friendships . . . Development of Talents . . . These are the characteristics of a Delta Sig.

Dear Readers,

Iota-Phi would like to share its many memories with you for the past year. Before the opening of school, Brothers Charles Dyson and C. B. Crook bit the dust in matrimony. Losing pins during the summer were Brothers Doug Squires, Crowell Pope, and Bill Thompson. The year was off to a gung-ho start with a trip to the country and our annual steak fry at our prominent advisor's farm. Freshman orientation over and back to the books. After much deliberation and discussion, the Clown-Faculty Basketball Game was presented. Great time by all Brothers and Pledges. Another Brother bites the dust and gets married, Frank Kimbro. A bouncing baby boy came to the home of Brother Hagg Bowman. Joy! Joy! Joy! The well-coached and drilled football team finished in second place, losing one game, in the close competitive Intramural league. Whoops!!! Rush week, twenty-three outstanding men pledged. A quick trip to a new and secluded rock at a big college and slick paint job by pledges. Reavis, Barbour, Crye and brothers still clinging to pins—good luck, men. Trophy from National Headquarters for National Publication Award. Another big Christmas Party with our sister sorority, the Phi Mu's. Christmas goodbyes were celebrated at a stag party at local Legion Hut. Study halls for pledges. Pledge initiation dance comes along pretty quick and is held at local Country Club. We gain much recognition on campus: Charles Dyson and Charles Watson in "Who's Who"; Bobby Yates, president of sophomore class; Reavis, Routh selected junior marshals; Charles Watson and "Bones" Mann keep Dorm quiet, Charles Johnson and Harold Wright, "big men" in Student Legislature; Henry Groom, president freshman class; Charles Dyson, president senior class; Harold Wright, "king pin" in MSF.

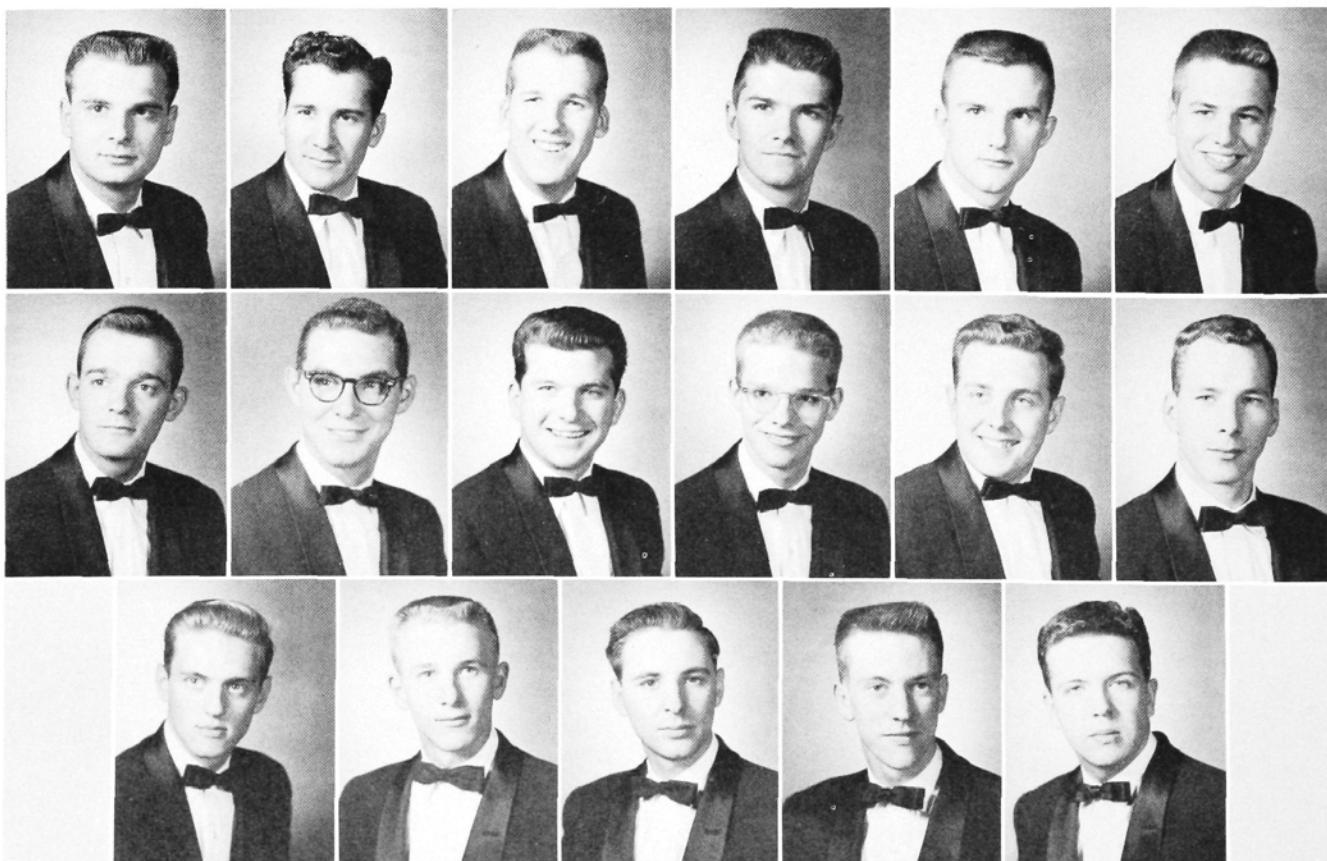

Trips, as usual, dominated the summer for us as a Fraternity. Brothers make trip to Greenville, N. C., for East Carolina College to install 55 men as a colony. Men journeyed to Washington and Lee University for Colonial Conclave. Canada was seen by trip to Montreal, Quebec, Canada, for the National General Assembly. Up comes Mike Flanagan vs. Fuller. Charles Johnson still is hobbling around on one leg. Brother Martin empties room on week-end for quiet trip to Mooresville. Reavis plays tennis and golf, Short plays basketball and Wright all "intramural." Another year comes to close for Lamba Chi.

Didn't we all have a ball in 1958-59. Three years undefeated in softball and the all intramural award. What a blast at the beach; party, party and serenade, Ted's yellow bug and the KD house. Meade missed all the fun with an attack of appendicitis. Back to school for another bang-up year. Great seeing all the old faces again. "Pork" back with the "Black beast" with a new tire yet! Letters all the time from the service boys. Joe's gonna be a daddy. Fred's pinned. Fabulous back to school party at Jamestown and Bill pins Edna Rose, which is no real surprise. Kemper, Doug, the Rocking Reu and the rest finally got their grades and became big time brothers. "Mac" makes it too!! Off we go to the mountains. Corbin and Janice, Bill and Edna Rose get lost?? Oh well, home again finds A. B. Andrews a big lover and Kemp still getting his sugar report from Mass. Trev. still believes he owns part of Grandfather Mountain. Rush!! Wow, what a time; invitations, parties, Doug flashing the bulbs, and then bids. What's that? 30 pledges? Great going, men. Will Fussel make it? Intramurals get going and once again we find ourselves doing well. Garnets sing at Miss H. P. C. Contest. Was Finley nervous or not?? Pledges enjoy "Help Week" and visiting other chapters. Everyone has a ball at Bill's serenade—oh, remember Venable's wet one? What a time we had at the Gangster Ball, jahoots!! Oh, ho, who told———"Colonel Cole" that Napoleon was little and loud.

Was that international party a ball or a party, Gadzooks, what crazy costumes, Luther lost his brother. "Shakenasty" Zimmerman still getting a letter a day. Will Mick ever finish school? I wonder if Rick is thinking about joining the Army. The alumni chapter finally gets started. Big Phil is back again. Wished he had joined the Marines. Finley is still around. What would we do without the greatest bunch of pledges in the world? Around rolls March and comes time to quit all little parties and get down to the big one—our Dream Girl Ball. Was lovely wasn't it? We couldn't have picked a sweeter dream girl. I hope to never look at a potato chip again. Here comes the intramural trophy again. Well, looks like time to go back to the beach and have a blast. It has been fun and a great year for all of the brothers and pledges of Pi Kappa Alpha. Wait 'till next year!!

Cherished moments of 1958-59 include: The fall rush season and our stag party with the program by several brothers from Wake Forest... the drag rush party at Lexington...the night of pledging and the formal initiation...goonie balls and all...the neon sign and those trips to Greensboro to pick it up...our football game with the Wake Forest chapter...It'll be a different story next year, boys...the Christmas party for the underprivileged children...the Alpha Gams were terrific...“Smitty” didn't do such a bad job either... Christmas wouldn't have been Christmas without that party...the night of the formal induction when our pledges came into the brotherhood of Theta Chi...“Vive le Theta Chi”...the 1959 Dream Girl Ball at the Robert E. Lee and the terrific time that everyone had that night... Here's to the brothers that “put on the ball and chain”...

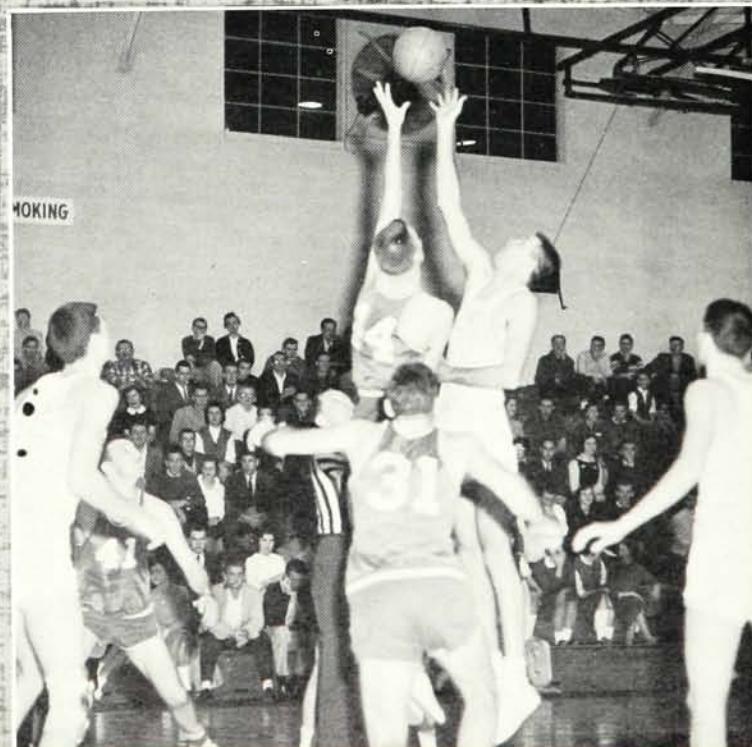

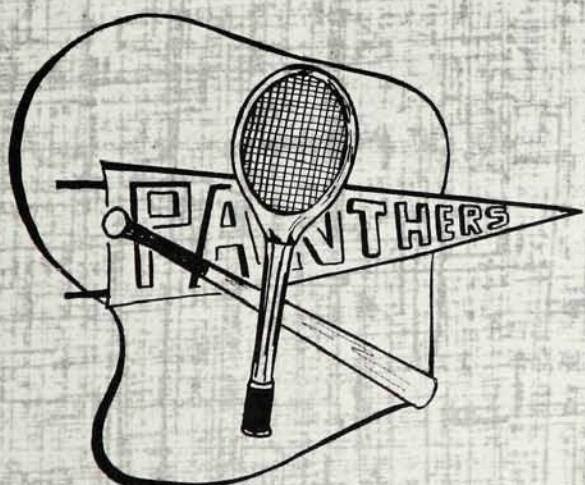

Off the record Epsilon Alpha remembers: Mell and Miss North Carolina... “The Red OX Cafe”...trying to spot questions on sociology tests...a certain group's trip to the Rathskeller in Winston...Tony leaving his car on Main Street for the taking...Tony finally finding his car in Thomasville...John hiding in the closet...movies at the Coon Club...“Hey Lee, throw me the salt”...Busbin and his wild students at Trinity...the corny jokes at the stag rush party.

The seniors cherish every moment of all four years spent at High Point College as brothers in Theta Chi. The fellowship and the lessons learned have been indispensable to college life. It is with a sad heart that one graduates and leaves Epsilon Alpha. She will be remembered and she will not forget any one of her members. “A glorious past is ever telling of friendship that shall never die. Within us peace and union dwelling while honor crowns the Theta Chi.”

With the advent of the 1958-59 school year, a new spring sport was added to the High Point intercollegiate athletic agenda. In accordance with the rapid development of the college's athletic program, Dr. Gilman Hertz organized a new cross-country track team.

In its first season of competition, although participating in only three meets, the cross-country team came through in grand style; it won two of the three meets. Having only a five man squad, this was quite a feat. Pacing the team were Mickey Dean and Dick Vert being ably assisted by Don Simmons, Tommy Hanner, and Willard Formyduval.

Characterizes the Varsity Season

Coach Virgil Yow, in his fifth year as the Panther's head basketball coach, brought High Point's basketball team through a torid season to place fourth in the final conference standings. With Western Carolina having its best season in several years, East Carolina coming fast at the end of the season, and always tough Lenoir Rhyne continuing to win, the Panther freshman-studded squad had a tough time sticking in the upper bracket.

Last year's hardwood edition was hard hit by graduation and Coach Yow had to begin a rebuilding campaign this season. Employing a squad with Captain Steve Afendis and Ken Williams the only seniors, Coach Yow should give Panther basketball hopefuls something to look forward to in the coming seasons. Next year High Point should be considered a definite threat to take the conference title. Danny Sewell, who was named the most Valuable Player in District 26 and who was named to the All-State Squad along with other honors, has one more year of eligibility, and it should be his greatest yet.

Tournament

The High Point Purple Panthers made it to the semi-final round of the North State Conference Tournament before bowing out to the powerful Catamounts of Western Carolina. With Danny Sewell and Captain Steve Afendis leading the way, the fourth ranked Panthers rolled over a weak Elon club in the opening round by a score of 67 to 49. Leading by only four at halftime, High Point broke the game open in the first 10 minutes of the second half and coasted home to victory.

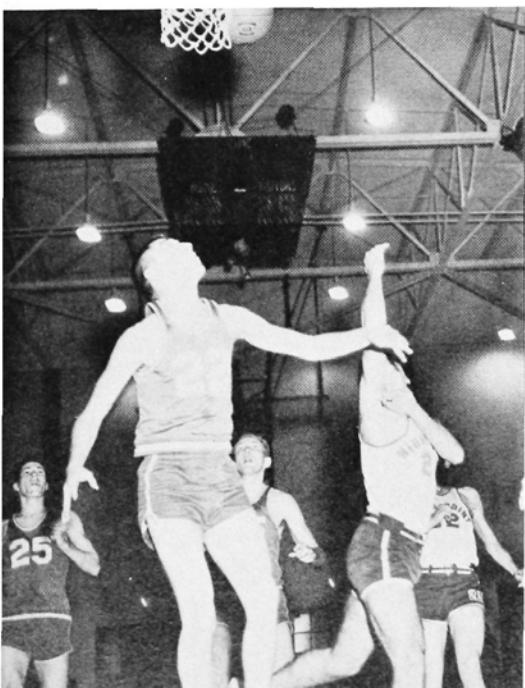

A large delegation journeyed from High Point to Lexington two nights later to see if the Panthers could pull an upset over Swede Frauson and Company. The Purple and White battled on even grounds with the Catamounts for the first 20 minutes and held a slim 32 to 31 halftime lead. With Steve Afendis paving the way, the charged-up Panther quintet gamely tried to stay with the powerful Catamount club, but faltered in the final five minutes of the game and fell to a 76 to 65 defeat. Overall-power and superior rebounding proved to be the turning point as Western Carolina moved on to take the championship against Catawba.

Jr. Varsity

This year, under the leadership of Mr. Chuck Hartman, the Junior Varsity completed a satisfactory season. Sparked by a fine offense and a "never-say-die" spirit, the Baby Panthers showed up well against all competition. Paving the way for the team throughout the season were such boys as Don Simmons, Ben Wyndham, and Jerry Webster. The fine ability that all of these boys showed this season should make of these boys good material for future varsity editions of the Purple Panthers.

Baseball

Third row: Joe Guzinski; George Ivey; Tex Flippin; Gil Buck; Corbin Cherry; Kirby Joyce; Gerald Brooks; Phil Blair.*

Dr. Jack Netcher, Head Baseball Coach and Athletic Director, in his second year at the helm of the Panther diamond squad has begun, with the able assistance of Chuck Hartman, to build High Point up as a power in baseball competition in the North State Conference. This year's team was built around Charlie McCorkle and Darrell Smith, the only returning lettermen.

The baseball diamond was given a new face this past summer and new dugouts were constructed. According to Dr. Netcher, High Point's field is now in about as good shape as any in the conference.

Tennis

NUMBER ONE MAN
PRESTON WILLIAMS

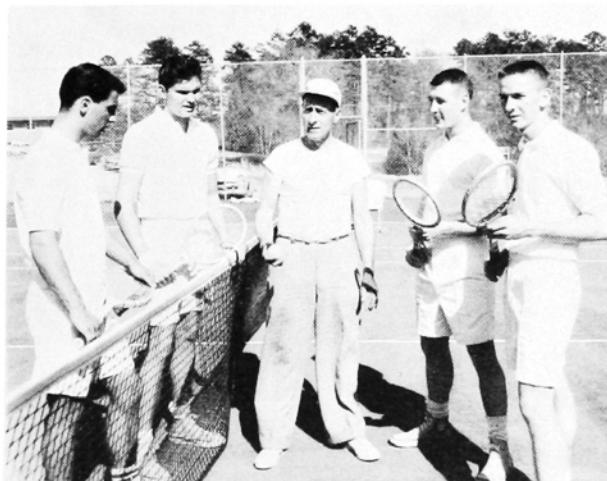

Dr. Arthur LeVey, McCulloch Hall dorm counsellor and professor of Romance languages, was added this year to the athletic department in the capacity of tennis coach. LeVey faced a tough job when he entered this tennis season. He had to begin on a tremendous job of rebuilding in order to put the Panthers in contention for a top spot in the North State Conference. Tony Adams and Tommy Loftis were the only returnees from last year's racquet squad. Bill Huegele, runner-up in singles play in the conference last year, was lost through graduation and was the hardest person to replace. Preston Williams, a new-comer, took over the number one position on the team.

The Panther Thinclads, who placed fourth in conference competition last year, this season boasted a much stronger team. The only major loss from the team last year was Harold "Slick" Sykes, the conference record holder in the discus. Pacing the season's cinder squad were Mickey Dean, undefeated last year in the half-mile; Dick Vert, ace distance runner; Tommy Hanner, the 400-yard pacer; and Jack Short, the top field events man. Supporting these were Tommy Skidmore, Danny Sewell, and such newcomers as Pete Sturm, Greg Houghton, and Marion Suitt.

Golf

Golf, in the rebuilding stages this year, has had a tough time remaining a contender in the conference. It has remained through such hardships an integral part of the inter-collegiate program at High Point. Although it is low at the present, with many fine new prospects on hand, it should definitely improve. The "linkmen" should soon become top contenders in conference play.

The Intramural Football Champions, Tau Kappa Epsilon.

This year the intramural program has been a very good one. The teams have been fairly evenly matched with no one dominating all of the sports. The dog-fight for the All-Sports trophy should go on until the last sport has been completed. At the present, Lambda Chi Alpha and Tau Kappa Epsilon are battling it out for the top position with only one point separating them.

Undefeated teams have been numerous this year. Tau Kappa Epsilon won the football championship with an undefeated team, Lambda Chi won the volleyball championship in like manner, and Pi Kappa Alpha ran up an undefeated record in basketball. With the softball season coming up, along with several minor sports, the battle for top points should prove to be interesting. Who can say who will win the All-Sports trophy?

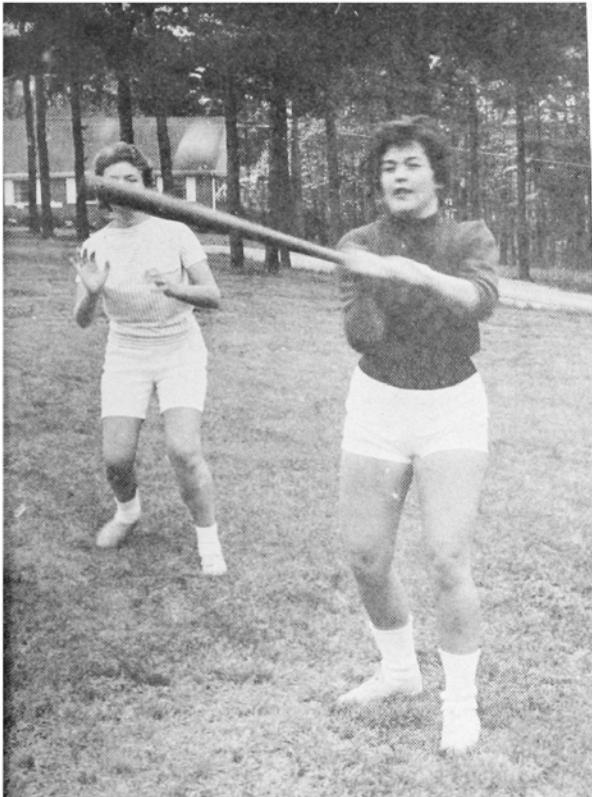

Under the able leadership of Miss Nancy Hood, the women's intramural program has been greatly improved. This year marked the advent of an extensive sports program for women. Next year, if all goes according to plans, several new sports will be added to the sports agenda. Dominating play thus far in the season have been very strong teams from the Phi Mu Sorority and the Independents. Phi Mu finished strong to take the basketball championship in a one day tournament. The Independents will probably have the strongest softball team.

SANDRA PARNELL

From a bevy of lovely girls pretty and talented Sandra Parnell, sponsored by Zane Daniel, was selected by the student body to reign over homecoming festivities at High Point College. Shattering all previous records of attendance, many alumni attended the homecoming activities on February 14. During alumni registration in the morning campus tours were conducted by members of the local chapter of the High Point College Alumni Association. According to custom Dr. and Mrs. Cooke held open house during the afternoon. Many alumni and their families attended the annual dinner in the Harrison Hall Cafeteria, over which Porter Hauser, president of the alumni association presided. Though disappointed by the loss of the game between High Point and Appalachian, fans nevertheless enjoyed the half-time activities of the game which included scenes from the Tower Players' production, Girl Crazy, presentation of various awards, and the crowning of lovely Sandra Parnell, Homecoming Queen.

Student organizations were encouraged to construct on the front campus displays depicting a homecoming theme. These attractive displays were judged by an alumni committee, and the winner and runner-up received awards presented by the Student Government Association during the half-time activities of the homecoming game between Appalachian and High Point. Lambda Chi Alpha received the first award, and Zeta Tau Alpha was presented the second prize for a merry-go-round display. Pictured above is Lambda Chi Alpha's winning display. Mistlike ghosts throng about us in the dawn, our precious remembrances of things past. We prize them, cherish them, count them over as misers their gold pieces, and then we put them away . . .reluctantly . . .but realizing that they can be restored to us instantly by a turn of a page or a glance into our hearts. And ever as we take them out, our remembrances, to be lovingly re-examined, we put them away again; for they are a part of yesterday and the dawn of our beginning. Our strength, our hopes, and our energies, we direct to the promise of the future, lying shining and lovely in the full golden light of the day.

“The past is but the beginning of a beginning , and all that is and has been is but the twilight of the dawn.”
